Your Source for Venture Capital and Private Equity Financings

Discover more

Venture capital news

VC database access

Mobile app subscription

Daytona Raises $24M Series A

Back to Home

2026-02-06 Find VC Investors

Post Share

NEW YORK, NY, Daytona, the infrastructure company building programmatic, composable computers for AI agents, announced it has raised $24 million in Series A funding.

>> Click here for more funding data on Daytona

>> To export Daytona funding data to PDF and Excel, click here

Daytona, the infrastructure company building programmatic, composable computers for AI agents, announced it has raised $24 million in Series A funding.

The round was led by FirstMark Capital, with participation from Pace Capital and existing investors Upfront Ventures, E2VC and Darkmode. The round also included strategic investments from Datadog and Figma Ventures. In conjunction with the financing, Matt Turck, General Partner at FirstMark, has joined the Daytona Board of Directors.

(c) by Massinvestor, Inc. For contact info, please check out our about page. Find Study Aids

>> Click here for in-depth research on 9,000+ startups and 5,000+ VC investors

Subscribe to Daily VC Alerts

* indicates required

Email Address *

Subscribe

© 2024 Massinvestor, Inc.

Discover more

Venture search tool

Pre-seed funding guide

Series B funding